REPORT OF THE ANNUAL MEETING.

THE Third Annual Meeting of the Brooklyn Methodist Episcopal Church Home was held at the St. John's M. E. Church, on the evening of January 26th, 1886. There was present a large gathering of the friends of the Home. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Wm. I. Preston. Words of welcome were spoken by the Rev. W. L. Phillips, the pastor of the St. John's Church, a portion of the Scriptures were read by the Rev. Sandford H. Hunt, and the congregation were lead in prayer by the Rev. Thomas Stephenson.

Mr. H. C. M. Ingraham was elected Secretary. The reports of the Corresponding Secretary, the Treasurer, and the Attending Physicians were read, accepted and filed.

Managers were elected for the ensuing year whose names are recorded at pages 4-9 of this report.

The Rev. Dr. J. M. Buckley delighted the audience with an address full of wit and wisdom, and the choir added to the enjoyment of all present with choice music.

Thanks were rendered by the President to all who had contributed to the happiness of the evening, and with gratitude for the past and hopes for the future the meeting adjourned.

H. C. M. INGRAHAM,
Secretary.

THE SECRETARY'S ANNUAL REPORT.

In beginning the work of caring for the Aged and Infirm of our Church, the Board of Managers realized that there would be little opportunity afforded them for yielding to the "softness and needless self-indulgence" deprecated by early Methodism. The daily needs of the family, in their numerous details, require a constant exercise of vigilant care and unremitting labor, while to this is added the "thought for the morrow" that is a solemn duty under the circumstances. Therefore, the record for the year is a record of work ; and, we gratefully add, a record of success.

The first aim has been to make contented and happy those under our care, and no effort has been spared with that end in view. The committees in charge of the house details have been untiring in anticipating the wishes of the inmates. While the general health at the Home has been good during the year, there have been several cases of severe illness to tax the sympathy of the Committee on the Sick ; but the watchful care of the physicians, and good nursing, resulted in the restoration to health of all but one. Mr. Frederick Brown died on Sunday evening, November 14th, in the 68th year of his age. He had borne a high Christian character, and his end was peaceful.

All the standing committees have been called into action, and the ready response of our contributors has made it practicable for them to secure for our inmates every comfort. The funds to provide for current expenses have been augmented by the proceeds of the Annual Strawberry Festival, held June 3d, at the Home.

The regular monthly collections show systematic work, and the Treasurer's report shows no deficiency as compared with that of last year, although the family has increased from 13 to 19 inmates.

The Application and Investigation Committees have perhaps the most difficult position. Our present building is filled to the uttermost corner, and our hearts ache when the necessity arises to shut the door on any one who otherwise would be permitted to enter. While, therefore, to provide for present wants requires unwearied forethought, it also behooves us to make every effort to provide for larger benevolence in the future. This fact induced the Managers to attempt to add to the Lot and Building Fund by engaging in a fair, which accordingly was held, November 5th, 6th and 7th, in the Academy of Music, and, with the bazaar, held on the 15th and 16th of the same month at Thayer's Hall, resulted in the addition of $10,000 to that fund. This result was not achieved without arduous and painstaking labor, and liberal expenditure on the part of many of the community whose generosity we most highly appreciate. The Managers find that the work has drawn them more closely together; that they are now a tried band, and that the financial result is not the only pleasant outcome of the fair. Indeed, all the work has been done in a Christian harmony that has made the burden light. The Lot and Building Fund was also increased by the proceeds of a concert given by Mrs. Joshua Youngs, at St. John's Church in May, as well as by several private donations.

The Board of Managers feel themselves greatly indebted to their counsel, the Advisory Board, the Clergy who have so kindly aided us whenever called on, and the attending physicians. Any report would be incomplete which did not record the gratitude of Inmates and Managers to those whose assiduous care has so immeasurably contributed to the welfare of the institution.

This Annual Meeting finds the Home, not yet three years old, with every indication that it holds a God-given place in the hearts of the people. The record of the year shows that all who have been called upon are willing to give abundantly of their substance, whether that be time, money, labor, influence or thought; and in all departments of the work there is a prosperity that encourages us to "Go forward."

MISS M. YOUNG,
Corresponding Secretary.
